See seals in Hout Bay (optional boat ride) and have time to wander the shops. You can explore the Cape Point Nature Reserve at your leisure, and check out playful families of African penguins in Simon's Town.

From water to skies, Chapman's Peak is a mountain on the Cape Peninsula with a 5.5-mile (8.8 kilometres) road, said to be one of the world's most scenic drives. The road winds from Hout Bay to Noordhoek, clinging to the side of the steep mountain almost the whole way. Traveling this road's 114 turns is a must-do in Cape Town.

Later we head to Cape of Good Hope, rocky promontory at the southern end of Cape Peninsula, Western Cape province. Cape Town definitely has no shortage of amazing beaches, but Boulders in False Bay offers something extra special - a colony of African Penguins in all their smartly dresses, waddling glory, and right under your nose.
